Solopaca DOP,

Fabulae, 13.5%

125ml glass 6.2

175ml glass 7.5

Bottle 33

Made in a limited area of the town Solopaca near Benevento. This wine has a ruby colour and noble aromas of ripe red fruits and berries. Ageing in an oak barrel for 18 months makes it very gentle on the palate with balanced tannins. It goes well with traditional dishes and red meat.

Valpolicella Ripasso DOC,

Valpenta Superiore, 14%

Bottle 35

Valpolicella Ripasso is the result of a second fermentation on Amarone pomace that takes place in February of the year following the harvest. As a result of this second fermentation the wine is considered as a "Baby Amarone". Tasting notes intense ruby red colour with wide bouquet of ripe red fruit and hints of spices, reminiscent of tobacco and black pepper. It goes well with hearty main course.

Morellino Di Scansano DOCG,

Podere 414 Organic, 14%

Bottle 41

The colour is intense ruby red. The bouquet is characterised by key notes of ripe fruit which blend with secondary spicy notes complemented by a woody note. On the mouth it delivers body, roundness and freshness, derived from the quality of the tannins and the sustained acidity.

Primitivo Di Manduria Imperio LXXIV,

Feudo Croce, 14.5%

Bottle 45

This Primitivo variety comes from Manduria, where the variety shows the fullest body and character. Colour is intense red with garnet highlights, and presents a complex panorama of aromas with marked notes of ripe red fruit, spices, slight hints of cocoa and a balsamic vein. Taste is good persistence and harmony with hints of dry fruit and soft tannins with a toasted finale. Based on aggregated critic scores this is one of the Top 10 Primitivo di Manduria wines.
